Spotlight: Guided Pathways at RCC

Completion Counts through Pathways and the RCC College Promise

For the last three years, RCC has worked to organize itself—in terms of administration, integration of student support services, planning processes, departmental patterns through ADTs, the expansion of engagement centers, and curriculum redesign (e.g. acceleration in both math and English)—around the idea of guided pathways in an effort to improve student success, completion, and equity. What RCC's guided pathway
